

The West Bloomfield Police Department will hold a memorial ceremony in front of the police department located at 4530 Walnut Lake Road, West Bloomfield, MI 48325 on Tuesday, April 26, 2016 at 12:00 pm. The ceremony will honor five Michigan law enforcement officers who have lost their lives in the line of duty. We will also honor two officers from Washington and South Carolina who have ties to our great state and six federal officers who were killed overseas fighting the war on terror. The service will be held prior to the National Police Week events held throughout the country that honor all law enforcement officers who have given their lives in the performance of their duties. The public is welcome to join us as we remember our fallen American heroes.

If you would like to attend this beautiful and memorable event, please do not park at the police station or along the Civic Center roadway. Please park your vehicle in the library parking lot or the parks and recreation parking lot and walk to the police station.

If you have questions call Officer Rick Trabulsy at telephone number 248-975-8974.
